Cushman Indian School
Tacoma, Wash., July 29, 1919

Mr. Henry Allen
c/o Wm. C. Miller
Potlatch, Wash.

Dear Mr. Allen:

Your son, William, has been running wild on and off the reservation. If he were willing to attend the Skokomish School regularly, I would say nothing about his coming to Cushman; but he has given proof that he will not do so--and I advise you as a friend, to place him here September 2, 1919. He will, otherwise, grow up wild and unmanageable and will cause you much sorrow in years to come.

Bring him to Cushman yourself. I have visited Skokomish a number of times and have hunted for you once or twice, but have failed to find you.

Last year, we were proud of Bertha. She behaved as a girl should and graduated from school with the friendship and respect of her fellow pupils and teachers. I sincerely hope she will take my advice and enter High School. She has brains and will be able to do the work in High School with credit to herself and her school.

Very sincerely yours,

Superintendent.

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)
