Supt. Hammond,
Tacoma, Washington.

Dear Sir:

Could you not find or arrange some way so that Harry could go out to some good place during the remainder of this summer and work so he could earn something for himself?

Altho he is not very bright in school I know he is good about work. Of course he has never done much of anything else but farm work.

Reproduced at the National Archives at Seattle

I'm possitive there would be no danger of his running away.

If you would please let him do this I would be very much obliged.

Yours very truly,

Mrs Minnie Blair.

Dear Mrs. Blair:

Harry has been going out to work every other day. Several days he has volunteered to help around the school but as a rule he has his every other day off to do as he pleases. He is looking better than usual.

Lillian has been enjoying the whooping cough which we think she contracted about the time she returned, or shortly after her arrival. Otherwise, she is well.

Sincerely yours,

Superintendent.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find a letter from Harry. He had a rather serious attack of influenza, but thanks to careful nursing, did not contract pneumonia. Both he and Lillie are fully recovered, and I hope happy.

It is suggested that you write to them often, bright, encouraging letters so that they may not be unduly troubled with homesickness. I remember how homesick I used to get when I first left home.
