Dear Friend:

The fancy apron which you made here last year for the Prize Contest, was sent to Washington D. C. and placed in competition with similar articles from all the Indian schools in the United States and I am glad to say that you won the first prize and the highest honors for fancy aprons. This I know will be very gratifying to you and I feel it to be quite an honor to Cushman School for one so young as you to take first prize. Cushman school got four first prizes and two second prizes.

The prizes awarded you for your work are, "Heroines Every Child Should Know" and "Home Needle Work Magazine".

I trust you will get much benefit and entertainment out of these prizes.

Very respectfully,
