TACOMA, WASHINGTON

Mr. C. V. Peel,
Special Agent in Charge,
Cushman Indian School,
Tacoma, Washington.

Dear Mr. Peel:

Gus Cornoyer, deserter from your school, has arrived here on the reservation. I do not believe it advisable to return him for the short remainder of the term, as I understand he paid his own expense to the school. However, I will be guided by your wishes in the matter if you will advise me.

Very truly yours,

E. L. Swartzlander

Superintendent.

Tell Mr. S. that I concur in his belief, etc., & thank him for his co-operation.

Dear Sir:

Gus Cornoyer, a pupil from your Agency, received a letter from home telling him that his stock was running loose and things going to pieces, and that it would be to his interest to return and look after his affairs.

Kindly investigate and let me have an early reply.

Very respectfully,

Special Agent in Charge.

Dear Mr. Peel:

I have received your letter of the 2nd inst., concerning Gus Cornoyer. Gus' people do not life here, and when he was here he stayed with Charley Van Pelt and his family. Charley died last winter, and his widow has had some trouble with her stock getting away from her, but I do not know whether Gus had any stock with hers or whether he had not.

So far as I know there is no pressing need for Gus to return to the reservation.

Very truly yours,

The law provides:

"That no part of this appropriation, or any other appropriation provided for herein except appropriations made pursuant to treaties, shall be used to educate children of less than one-fourth Indian blood whose parents are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they live and where there are adequate free-school facilities provided and the facilities of the Indian schools are needed for pupils of more than one-fourth Indian blood."

EXTRACTS FROM SCHOOL RULES.

If the facilities of a school are not needed as provided in the above paragraph, children showing any Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, and who if debarred from Government schools could not obtain an education, may be enrolled in the day and boarding schools of their reservation; these children, however, may not be transferred to nonreservation schools without special permission from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Before enrolling a pupil superintendents must satisfy themselves whether he has left any other school without permission and whether he has been expelled for cause from any other school. A pupil who has been expelled for cause from any Indian school may be reenrolled in any Indian school only with permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Attention is invited to Circulars Nos. 1039 and 1044, which must be observed.

"The Secretary of the Interior may in his discretion withhold rations, clothing, and other annuities from Indian parents or guardians who refuse or neglect to send or keep their children of proper school age in some school during a reasonable portion of each year." Supt. E. H. Hammond

Cushman Indian School

Tacoma, Washington

My dear Mr. Hammond:

The bearer is David Minthorn of this reservation, who with Joseph Wild Bill or Thompson, and possibly Gus Cornoyer, wish to enter your school for the balance of this term. They will pay their own transportation, and I send you this letter to let you know who they are, and that they go with my endorsement. I hope you can find room for them. I would appreciate it if you will let me know when they arrive at Cushman

Yours sincerely,

E. L. SWARTZLANDER

Superintendent.
