DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE

Cushman Indian School
Tacoma, Washington, Dec. 30, 1919

Mr. William Frank
Sequim,
Washington

My dear Mr. Frank:

If your girls live within reach of public schools, I cannot receive them at Cushman, but if they live too far to attend a public school I shall be glad to receive them.

If you sign your children up to three years at School, the School will pay transportation, otherwise, you will be obliged to pay their transportation yourself. This will mean however, that the children will remain at school until they have finished their term.

Inasmuch as Cushman closes next June, your children will be transferred to Chemawa. A request for transportation must come thru Mr. A. N. Taylor, teacher in Jamestown Day School, Dungeness, who must certify that the children have completed the work given at his school.

Very truly yours,

E. H. Hammond
Superintendent.
