Mr. T. J. Thomason:

Mrs. Lillie Kuckup, mother to Irene and Gilbert Kalama, claims sole custody by law of these two children, and objects to their visiting Mr. Peter Kalama, or being placed in his custody even temporarily.

Dear Mrs. Wagner:

In reply to your letter of the 23rd instant, would advise that your brother Gilbert Kalama was ill with influenza, but has fully recovered and is as well as ever.

Irene and Winona are both very well indeed and I hope they will not fall ill.

I am sorry Meta Tewee has no funds with which to pay her transportation to Cushman. She is a desirable pupil, but we cannot pay her transportation back to school a second time in three years. Please do your best to obtain her return at her own expense as promised when she left for home last June.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir
I am writing you in regard to my brother Gilbert Kalam who, his mother hears, is sick and she wants me to write you. He is naturally weak and has been sick so much and was not able to go to school much either, but was very anxious to go to school, and since mother heard he was sick she wants to have his lungs are weak to about his health.

Meta Pence is still

will just tell you that Meta is so anxious to go back but her people don't have much money
and she is too far around for this little school. Yet we hate to part her in school. Thanking you in advance for an early reply I am
