DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE

Tulalip Indian Agency,
Tulalip, Washington,
November 20, 1919.

Supt. E.H. Hammond,
Cushman Indian School,
Tacoma, Washington.

My dear Mr. Hammond:

The bearer, Mr. Walter James, is Port Madison Allottee No. 46 and holds an allotment of land upon the Port Madison Reservation of this agency and jurisdiction. His father was Port Madison Allottee No. 23, James Adams, now deceased, approximately 18 years or so ago. One of the sons living at Yakima took his father's last name while this son (the bearer) was given his father's first name and has therefore been known as Walter James instead of Walter Adams. His brother, William Adams, lives at Yakima and Walter has been with him on the Yakima Reservation for four or five years but prior to that time both he and his father lived more or less continuously upon the Port Madison Reservation -- I have known Walter for 25 years myself. Walter James' children, of course, have no school rights at Yakima -- as a matter of fact they could not very well attend, even so, as they live four or five miles (he tells me) from the nearest school.

Under all of the circumstances it is my belief that the children of Mr. James, namely Walter Jr. (aged 16 years) and Benjamin (aged 12 years) are entitled to enrolment in a Government school and that their father's present home is too remote from a publicschool to permit attendance therein. I know of no obstacle or objection to their enrolment with you at Cushman.

Very respectfully,

Charles M. Buchanan,
Supt. etc.

"That no part of this appropriation, or any other appropriation provided for herein except appropriations made pursuant to treaties, shall be used to educate children of less than one-fourth Indian blood whose parents are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they live and where there are adequate free-school facilities provided and the facilities of the Indian schools are needed for pupils of more than one-fourth Indian blood."

EXTRACTS FROM SCHOOL RULES.

If the facilities of a school are not needed as provided in the above paragraph, children showing any Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, and who if debarred from Government schools could not obtain an education, may be enrolled in the day and boarding schools of their reservation; [illegible] children, however, may not be transferred to nonreservation schools without special permission [illegible] the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Before enrolling a pupil superintendents must satisfy themselves whether he has left any other school without permission and whether he has been expelled for cause from any other school.
