Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of March 13th relative to your desire to have your son, Joseph, return home to assist you in your work, I believe it to be for the best interests of your son that he remain here at school until its close, which will be about two months hence.

It would not be doing Joseph justice if he were compelled, at this time, to leave his school studies as he would lose the benefit of the next two months' instructions and would not complete his present grade in school, which would mean that part of this year's work would be lost to him as he would practically have to go over the work in the same grade next year if he were taken out at this time. Your son is very much interested in the school work and is making good. He possesses a nice disposition and is a very courteous and well behaved boy.

Very respectfully,

Special Agent in Charge.

Dear Mr. Joseph:

Your letter containing funds for the return of your son, Joseph, has been received. The sum is sufficient for his transportation only one way.

The regulation requiring the deposit of return transportation is not intended to inconvenience parents at all but is made to protect the Government from loss in case a pupil, whose transportation has been paid from Government funds, fails for any reason to return to school.

Joseph is well and appears to be enjoying himself. He works a day at school and is given a day to pick berries or to play as he pleases. I know you are anxious to see him but if I were you I would not ask for his return home until he has completed your three year contract with the Government.

Sincerely yours,

Superintendent.

Mr. Loue Joseph

Covada, Washington.

Dear Mr. Joseph:

I received your letter of February 17th., 1919 asking to have Joseph,your son,sent home. I am very sorry you have asked for him to leave before the close of school as he will lose practically the entire year's work by doing so.

I understand fully that the pupils' parents are just as lonesome without the children as the latter are without their parents. But surely, your son's future is precious to you and you would not willingly put anything in the way of his success.

You must know that the more education Joe has, the more chances he has to make a happy, respectable home for himself and for you. Give him a chance by keeping him in school until he finishes. He may return home for the vacation period - but keep him in school as long as the school is open. Give him his chance.

Sincerely yours,

EHH:T

INDORSEMENTS.

The laws relating to the transfer of Indian children from reservations and schools are as follows:

That hereafter no Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them are living, and if neither of them are living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (28 Stats., p. 906.)

Provided, That hereafter no Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (29 Stats., p. 348.)

That no Indian pupil under the age of fourteen years shall be transported at Government expense to any Indian school beyond the limits of the State or Territory in which the parents of such child reside or of the adjoining State or Territory. (35 Stat. L., 781.)

The rules provide that—

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other nonreservation school without the consent of both superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.

An Indian boy or girl 18 years old and over may, without the consent of parents or others, personally sign the application form on its being changed to suit the case· but in all cases where the parents are living they should first be consulted.
