The law provides:

"That no part of this appropriation, or any other appropriation provided for herein except appropriations made pursuant to treaties, shall be used to educate children of less than one-fourth Indian blood whose parents are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they live and where there are adequate free-school facilities provided and the facilities of the Indian schools are needed for pupils of more than one-fourth Indian blood."

EXTRACTS FROM SCHOOL RULES.

If the facilities of a school are not needed as provided in the above paragraph, children showing any Indian blood, whose parents live on an Indian reservation, and who if debarred from Government schools could not obtain an education, may be enrolled in the day and boarding schools of their reservation; children, however, may not be transferred to nonreservation schools without special permission from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Before enrolling a pupil superintendents must satisfy themselves whether he has left any other school without permission and whether he has been expelled for cause from any other school. A pupil who has been expelled for cause from any Indian school may be reenrolled in any Indian school only with permission of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Attention is invited to Circulars Nos. 1039 and 1044, which must be observed.

Dear Madam:

I have your letter of April 15 enclosing a post-office money order for $65.00 for William Moses to use for his boat fare home. I have taken this money up on my accounts and will hold it until William returns to Cushman.

William left Cushman school about one month ago with my permission in order that he might earn some money, presumably with the view of paying his way home.

I understand that he is working in a lumber mill at Port Gamble, Washington. I have send your letter to him advising him that I have his money.

Very respectfully,

Special Agent in Charge.
